

Call For Art 2024

People who have or have had mental health issues are invited to submit an artwork to the 12th Out of Sight Out of Mind exhibition which will be held in October 2024 at Summerhall in Edinburgh.

Take part as an individual or as a group. One artwork per person can be submitted. Artworks can be in any media (paintings, sculptures, drawings, installations, films, animations, sound works, photographs, craft and anything else). You can apply for a grant to help with materials costs, however you do not need a grant to take part.

Artworks can be on any topic. You are welcome to respond to this year's Scottish Mental Health Art Festival theme 'In/Visible', however this is not a requirement.

Submissions and materials grants:

Materials Grants Application closing date: 12pm on Monday 20 May 2024

Artwork Submissions closing date: 12pm Monday 8 July 2024

Visit the website to download the forms, for more information and to see previous exhibitions: <https://www.outofsightoutofmind.scot/news>

If you would like to speak to someone about yours or your group's idea/artwork first or would like paper/email copies of the forms, then get in touch.

Email: exhibition@capsadvocacy.org

Phone: Leave a message on 07989 402634

About:

The exhibition is organised by and for people with experience of mental health issues. It is a CAPS Independent Advocacy project, part of Thrive Edinburgh and the Scottish Mental Health Arts Festival.

www.outofsightoutofmind.scot

www.facebook.com/outofsightoutofmindexhibition/

www.capsadvocacy.org